

East Bay Housing Organizations (EBHO) Presents

Affordable Housing Week, May 7-16, 2010

“Affordable Housing: Healthy Families, Sustainable Communities”

2010 Housing Sabbath Speaker Signup Form

EBHO's Housing Sabbath, the closing event of Affordable Housing Week for the last four years, is rooted in the values that we share across boundaries of religion, race, ethnicity, and gender or income levels. They are the universal values of shelter for all persons, respect for our neighbors, appreciation for having a home, a place to belong, support and celebration of our diversity, fairness and our commitment to justice.

Be a part of EBHO's Interfaith Communities United for Affordable Housing (ICU) by participating in Housing Sabbath on Sunday, May 16th, 2010!

Sign up to be a speaker or accompany a speaker on Sunday, May 16th:

We are seeking speakers to visit participating congregations on May 16, 2010, to share their stories about the critical crisis of affordable housing. We are seeking residents, housing advocates, non-profit housing developers, allies, supporters, and EBHO members, who will speak at Housing Sabbath services or who will accompany a speaker.

For the past 13 years East Bay Housing Organizations (EBHO) has been hosting Affordable Housing Week. This series of events forms the core of EBHO's public education campaign. Affordable Housing Week seeks to raise the visibility of affordable housing needs and issues, and solutions; promote the good work of our members and allies; and develop new strategic coalition and campaign partners.
